Campaign Spotlight: West Lane County Commissioner

Jerry Rust, a former Lane County Commissioner that represented South Eugene for 20 years is now running for West Lane County Commissioner, but the Jerry Rust of the past is not the Jerry Rust of today.

While in office, the Oregonian called Rust, "Eugene's most liberal, liberal." Now Rust is describing himself as a moderate and even a conservative to run from his record of failed policies. This shows that Rust will tell voters anything but the truth to get elected.
