DORCHESTER 2010

By Ross Day, Executive Director and General Counsel

This past weekend was the 46th annual Dorchester Conference in Seaside. This year's event was the largest Dorchester Conference ever, with over 700 delegates in attendance, and 41 vendors in the exhibitor's hall. Common Sense For Oregon's booth was front-and-center and was one of the most popular booths of the entire conference.

We had a chance to show off "Petey" the electronic petition circulator that was recently in the news. A number of Dorchester delegates stopped by the booth to learn about Petey and sign the electronic petitions.

Outreach Coordinator, did a fantastic job coordinating volunteer interns to staff the Common Sense booth. In addition, Teresa and her interns managed to distribute over 300 "Golden Fleece Patrol" buttons to delegates. There were many people wearing campaign buttons for many different candidates, but just about everybody had on their Common Sense For Oregon Golden "Fleece Patrol" button.

All-in-all it was a very successful conference for Common Sense. If you came by the booth, thanks for visiting. If you couldn't make it to the conference this year, we hope to see you around very soon – Common Sense For Oregon will be out and about at many different gatherings (including county fairs) in the coming months.

And don't forget to join the "Dollar-a-Month Club", which helps Common Sense continue these types of successful community outreach efforts. We look forward to seeing you along the trail!
